on tuition?

Dear CNADM Member:

Without dreams, dancers would get nowhere. From the novice jazz student looking forward to his first solo, to the prima ballerina envisioning her next lead role, dreaming propels us all into the future.

But dreams alone won't pay tuition bills. That's why the Chicago National Association of Dance Masters is pleased to offer the Yvonne Brown Collodi College Scholarship to help members and their students achieve the dream of completing a dance degree.

At the 2021 Summer Dance Workshop, we will award one big dreamer with a $1,500 college scholarship for the 2021/2022 school term.

The enclosed scholarship application is also available at www.cnadm.com. Please share it with your students who are currently studying dance in college, and encourage them to keep moving toward their dreams— with a leg up from CNADM!

Applications are due June 30, 2021. In the spirit of our colleague Yvonne and her passion for the power of lifelong learning, we wish all applicants the very best.

Sincerely,

The CNADM Board of Directors

College Scholarship Application

The Chicago National Association of Dance Masters will award one $1,500 scholarship at the Summer Workshop to a member or student of a member in good standing in 2021. The selection will be made by a committee based on the following guidelines: Applications must be received by June 30, 2021.

Please complete the following:

1. To apply, you must be a member or a student of a member (members must have paid 2021 dues). Past scholarship recipients may re-apply if they are members or students of members in good standing.
2. You must be enrolled in the 2021 Dance & More or National Ballet Forum. You will be observed in class and your classwork will count for 40 percent.
3. You must be currently enrolled in college with a major or minor in dance. You must provide an original transcript of your grades and your academic performance will count for 25 percent. You must be in your second year or more as a dance major/minor.
4. You must provide a video of 3 to 5 minutes of your individual work in two or more disciplines (In-studio video preferred—it does not have to be a formal performance). This video will count for 25 percent.
5. You will be interviewed by the scholarship committee. Interviews will be scheduled during the workshop and will count for 10 percent.
6. Each applicant must submit a brief essay about your dance history, what dance means to you and how it will be a part of your future. In addition to dance, tell us about yourself: your hobbies, what is important in your life, your goals and dreams.
7. The financial award will be sent directly to the named college/university.
8. Materials may be submitted online at <https://cnadmdance.com/college-application-form/>
Upload this application, essay, original transcript copy, optional photo and a 3-5 minute in-studio performance video. Please contact Linda McDonald at linda@mcdonalddance.com with questions.
9. Videos must include individual performances only. Group performances will not be accepted.
10. Anything received past June 30 will not be accepted.
